

AND STILL THEY COME

Every Mail Brings Notification from Camps Coming to the Reunion.

HE PREFERS A BAPTIST FAMILY.

A Florida "Veteran" Would Like to be Entertained by a Family of That Denomination—A "Yank's" Generous Offer—Other Matters.

Captain Ellett received notification from a good many camps, stating that they proposed to attend the Confederate reunion, Zeb. Vance Camp, of Asheville, N. C., will be here on that occasion with thirty or forty men. W. E. Jones Camp, of Abingdon, Va., will be represented by thirty members, while Smith Camp, of Suffolk, will bring forty men. Clinton-Hatcher Camp, No. 8, of Leesburg, Va., will be here with sixty-two members, while a good many veterans will attend from Strasburg, Va.

Captain Ellett chartered yesterday the Cabell-Graves Camp, of Danville, Va.—E. W. Withers, commander, and R. A. Walters, adjutant.

A letter was received from R. W. Townes, of Kentucky, Va., stating that the Edmund Camp, of that place, would attend the reunion and join the Grand Camp.

The Tennessee Press Association, which holds its annual meeting this year on June 26th, at Cloudland, on the top of Roan Mountain, Tennessee, will upon adjournment proceed to this city to attend the reunion.

A "YANK'S" OFFER.

Mr. Gratznosky, of Manchester, Va., writes the following straightforward letter. "General Peyton Wise, Richmond, Va.: "Dear Sir,—If one or two of those old vets from Macon, Ga., will accept of the hospitality of a Yank at a vet 'Yank's' to the core, you will please direct them to me. I will guarantee them a good, soft, dry place to sleep and something to chew on."

PREFERS A BAPTIST FAMILY.

Mr. C. J. Thomas, of Inverness, Fla., is not so very particular, but would like to be entertained here during the reunion by a Baptist family. Colonel C. L. Loehr is in receipt of the following letter from him:

"Dear Sir,—I have been appointed a delegate from our camp to attend the reunion. As most of the Floridians are feeling the effects of the 1895 freeze we will be fortunate to be able to pay our railroad fare, therefore we will have to ask the hospitality of the good people of your city. If you can get me a secure quarters for me with some private family that is willing to entertain for a few days a quiet, sober old veteran, I don't think I would be able to stand the camp life. I mean you can't get me a free entertainment please send me the address of some nice family who will take me at the very lowest rate or have them send me their card at once so that I can have everything arranged before I start. We will probably have five or six in our party, but for the present I only write for myself. Would prefer a Baptist family, but am not particular.

Respectfully, etc., C. J. THOMAS, Formerly of Company G, Eighth South Carolina Regiment.

ICE-WATER FOR EVERYBODY.

The Sons of Veterans have arranged for providing the veterans, military, and all others participating in the parade with ice water. A large barrel of water will be placed on every street corner along the line of march and six or eight barrels will be put in Monroe Park. In order to raise money for the veterans' ice fund, the Sons of Veterans will arrange for a grand concert to be given in the Auditorium about the middle of this month. Two thousand voices will be heard in the entertainment. Professor Scrivener, of the Wednesday Club, director of the chorus, will also give a reception at the Masonic Temple during the reunion in honor of Miss Winnie Davis.

A FAMILY REUNION.

A family reunion of the Chappell family will be held here on July 1st, when its representatives from all parts of the South will be here to the Confederate reunion.

SOME REUNION NOTES.

John H. Wise and party from from Aquia Post-Office, Va., will be here. Mr. R. S. Ellis, of Shelby, N. C., an old member of A. P. Hill's Corps, writes for accommodations for ten gentlemen and four ladies, preferably at the Jefferson.

QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL J. F. SHIPP.

of the Tennessee veterans, will be here with a party.

TWO MURDER CASES HEARD.

Both Sent On to the Grand Jury.

The Bottlegger's Affair.

John T. Gaines, George Williams, John Williams, and Thomas Haskins, the four colored boys who were charged with the murder of Moses Ford, were again prisoners in the Police Court yesterday morning. All except Gaines were discharged. It will be remembered that Gaines confessed before the coroner's jury having thrown the fatal stone, and Justice Crutchenfeldt went far enough into the case yesterday to bring out this point. Gaines was sent on to the grand jury and the witnesses were recognized for June 23d. Mr. F. Maury represented the prisoner, and when Gaines's companions had been dismissed Ford's counsel arose and made a strong plea for bail. This was refused, and Mr. Maury carried the matter to Judge Witt. This jurist also refused Gaines bail, and the unfortunate had to wait to jail.

ANOTHER MURDER CASE.

The second murder case called in the Police Court yesterday was that of Thomas Robinson, the colored man charged with shooting and killing James Waddy, a Dispatch carrier. Robinson left Richmond immediately after the killing, and was captured in Newport News about two weeks ago through the efforts of Sergeant John T. Hall. The case was continued until yesterday morning in order to have summoned the necessary witnesses. After a brief examination of the case, the justice sent the case on to the grand jury, recognizing the witnesses for June 23d. Robinson and Waddy had been together on the morning of the killing, and Robinson had been making threats. Finally, Robinson drew a pistol and fired at Waddy, the bullet taking effect, from which Waddy died a few hours later. After firing the fatal shot Robinson is said to have remarked: "I told you I would turn you." Some one cried, "Run for a doctor," and with this

OTHER POLICE-COURT CASES.

Henry Dodson and Dock Pleasant, the two negro men charged with stealing $25 from T. T. Winston, were prisoners in the court yesterday morning, but their cases were continued until the 6th instant to allow the production of further testimony. Winston claims to have been the subject of a well-planned scheme, which caused him to come out exactly $25 short. The case was continued on account of the absence of witnesses.

Joseph Wellington, the little negro boy charged with assaulting and striking Manly Bottlegger with a rock, was in court, but counsel for the defence waived examination and the case was sent on to the grand jury.

Eddie Jones was fined $10 for assaulting and striking "Chick" Brooks. Eddie was also required to give $100 security for thirty days.

MANCHESTER NEWS NOTES.

Only One Case in the Police Court.

Personals and Briefs.

Mayor Maurice was engaged for a very short while in the Police Court yesterday morning. The only case on the docket was that of Wilbur Turner, who was charged with being drunk and disorderly. It seems that Turner had taken several glasses too many, and insisted upon posing himself just in front of Bowen & Bradley's store. He was asked repeatedly to move, but positively refused to do so. Finally, a phone message was sent, and a police officer was soon upon the scene. Turner had little to say yesterday morning when his case was called, and Mayor Maurice required him to give security of $100 for thirty days. Turner went to jail.

The Council Committee on Finance will meet in the Treasurer's office to-night at 8 o'clock. A called meeting of the Committee on Land and Buildings will be held in the same place to-morrow morning. The Executive Committee of the Manchester Board of Trade will meet next Monday afternoon.

Manchester Board of Trade will hold a regular quarterly meeting Wednesday evening, June 10th.

All persons who fail to have the license-tags on each side of their teams by Saturday will be summoned to appear at court Monday morning. The law is $10.

ABINGDON SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises of Martha Washington College and Jackson Institute.

ABINGDON, Va., June 4.—(Special.)—The annual exercises of Martha Washington College and Jackson Institute have just closed, after very successful terms.

The baccalaureate sermon at Martha Washington College was preached by Rev. I. P. Martin, of Tazewell, Va., who took for his text the words, "Behold, the world has gone after him." The theme of the discourse was a strong portrayal of the life of Christ, and the advancement of Christianity.

The sermon before the young ladies of the Institute was delivered by Dr. J. Albert Wallace, of King College, Bristol, Tenn. His text was, "She has done what she could." The theme was the characterization of the life of Mary, and the commendation of Christ for her faithfulness and devotion.

The exercises of both schools have had a large attendance, many visitors being in town. The following young ladies received diplomas from the college: Misses Ada Barham, Louisiana; Sophia Harrell, Tennessee; Lizzie Hendrick, Virginia; Lizzie Gardner, Virginia; Lucie Kidd, Virginia; Maude Fields, Texas; Cora Wood, Virginia; Holly Grant, North Carolina; Grace Pratt, Virginia; Josie Neel, Virginia; Jennie Harman, Virginia; Blanche Jackson, Virginia; Marie Patterson, Tennessee; Munsey McPherson, Virginia; Beattie Mallico, Virginia; Josephine Honnell, Virginia; Willie Reeves, Tennessee; Mamie Tennell, North Carolina.
